

I Will Fly Away Tomorrow

Words & Music by JIM HOWARD

Prestissimo ♩ = 216

A  D  Bm  F#m

Verse

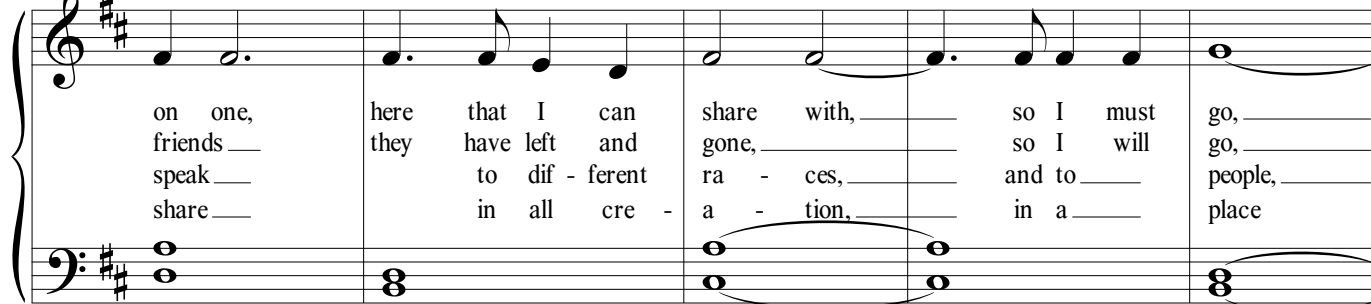

1. There is no - thing left for me to do,
2. All that I held so dear,
3. I will fly a - cross the na - tions,
4. To cross the great blue o - cean,

D  Bm  F#m

— there is no - thing here to make me stay, there is
— it is lost and I can't find, and all my
— to a land where I'll ne - ver been, and — to ex - plore a brand new world, and to

D  Bm  F#m  G

on one, here that I can share with, so I must go, friends they have left and gone, so I will go,
speak to dif - ferent ra - ces, and to people,
share in all cre - a - tion, in a place

A  D  G

Chorus

— and I will go.
— and start a new.
— I've ne - ver seen.
I can call my home.

I will fly a-way to - mor-row wait and

A D G A

see, I will fly a-way to - mor-row through the air and o're the sea, and I'll be lone-ly, but I'll be hap-py and I'll be free, and I'll be free, I will fly a-way to - mor-row wait and see,

D G A D G

A D G A

D G A D

I will fly a-way to - mor-row through the air and o're the sea, and I'll be

1, 2, 3.

lone-ly, but I'll be hap-py and I'll be free, _____ and I'll be free.

4.

2. free. _____ and I'll be free, _____ and I'll be
 3. I will
 4. To free. _____ and I'll be free, _____