

Scotland Unites

Words & Music by JIM HOWARD

Andante ♩ = 110

C

G

C

Dm

F

C

F

C

Dm

G

F

C

Dm

Am

Verse

1.&4. Hear the beat o' the drum, hear the skirl o' the pipes, our
(2. In the) beauty of na - ture, in our high rol - ling hills, where
(3. We) now can pros - per, like — ne - ver be - fore, de - voi - ces raised high, by day and by night. For a the sweet purple heather, lies si - lent and still. With our vel - op our land, and still ask for more. For a na - tion so proud, and now in full flight, for deep lochs and rivers, such beau - ti - ful sights, for coun - try so proud, re - spec - ted and liked, for

C G C

Scot - land and free - dom, Scot - land u nites. The Scot - land and free - dom, Scot - land u nites.
 Scot land and free dom, Scot land u nites.

G C F

Chorus

voi - ces of Scot - land have spo - ken, but not by the broad sword they fight, but by the free - dom of choice, in their

Bb G C

Em Am C G

mark as their right, for Scot - land and free-dom, Scot - land u-

Chord diagrams: C, C, G

1, 2, 3. 4.

nites. 2. In the 3. We 4. Hear the

For Scot - land and free-dom, Scot - land u-

Chord diagrams: F, C

nites.