— and the jour - neys long. — The snow is fal - ling, —
 — all my friends and you. — To be to - ge - ther, —
 — at the fal - ling snow. — It won't be long now, —

A7 D sus4 D C

— like a win - ters storm. — But — I must tra - vel, —
 — like we al - ways do. — For it seems a - long time, —
 — till we say hel - lo. — Just to see you, —

D G C

— these ma - ny miles. — For to see you, —
 — we've been — a part. — This fes - tive sea - son, —
 — and all of my friends. — At home of Christ - mas, —
